1. Anonymous Overview

Anonymous traces back to 2004 as a group of computer gamers and aspiring hackers, harassing other computer users. Message and image boards [Internet forums that permit users to post images and messages together] such as "enturbulation.org," "4chan," "7chan," "420chan," "711chan", 915chan.org and other Internet sites form the core haunts for the group. Their main haunts are the sections of these boards designated by the initials "/b/". Thus, they call themselves, "/b/tards."

Encyclopedia Dramatica is a sick parody of Wikipedia and is Anonymous' primary tool of defining itself. It hosts many of the violent and pornographic images Anonymous creates or takes from across the internet and uses to flood people's computers.

Anonymous raids online gaming sites and social networking communities. Its actions manifest some form of bigotry, whether it is anti-Semitic, racist or anti-religious. People who object are harassed with telephone threats uttered by computer-generated voices or with malicious computer attacks.

Their extreme language and images have prompted people to commit acts of murder/suicide, which their members then laugh about.

Anonymous is a convenient facade for criminal activity on the Internet and in the real world. Behind that facade are people who hide behind masks, such as the image of 17th Century Anarchist Guy Fawkes, basing their actions on subversive writings such as Mein Kampf and the Communist Manifesto, as they vent their basest impulses, all the while rationalizing that their anonymity frees them from responsibility for their acts.

Contrary to their public statements, there is no purpose for Anonymous' actions other than harassment. This is made clear in a posting on 711chan called We /b/elieve:

In short, we are doing this for the sole reason of fucking them up and pissing them off.

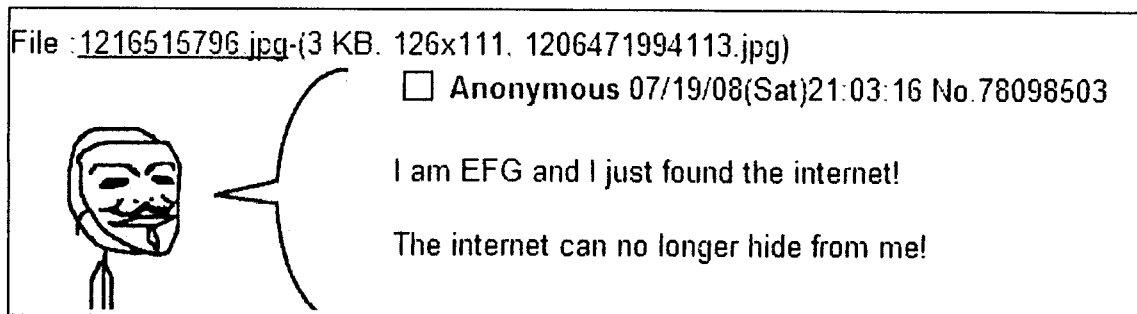

(A glossary of terms related to Anonymous is included at the back of this pack.)

Origin of the Anonymous mask:

The mask worn by members of Anonymous depicts British Anarchist Guy Fawkes. It is worn by the lead character in the movie V for Vendetta. The use of this mask originated in Anonymous message boards as a stick figure character called "Epic Fail Guy." Guy Fawkes, who failed in his attempt to blow up English parliament in 1606 and was drawn and quartered, is considered to be a monumental failure, or in Anonymous' language "Epic Fail." Anonymous used the image to announce when someone or something was about to be ruined, or has failed utterly.

Ultimately, Epic Fail Guy graduated from being a stick figure to the actual mask, such as in the July 2007 Anonymous YouTube Video addressed to Fox News, shown here. It has been the pervasive symbol for Anonymous since.

Anonymous promulgates its own "Rules of the Internet", which it uses to corrupt the internet experience for everyone.

Anonymous bases their actions on subversive writings, such as Mein Kampf and the Communist Manifesto.

DOMESTIC TERRORISM

Anonymous. This is your call to arms. It's getting serious. With the support, guidance, and coordination of the ebaums terror network, we have begun to expand the lulz to real life. No longer shall we chain ourselves to the glowing box that is the interwebs. No longer will be satisfied with destroying myspacers weblives, raping loli's and destroying yellow vans on the 1 tube.

The time to arise is now. All your war internet's are the lol to us. I shall now distribute the orders:

Order 1: Stick to the code. Internet rules 1 + 2 still apply.

Order 2: Begin collecting information on your local Church of Scientology.

Order 3: All loli's are to be rounded up and taken to our secret underground bases in preparation for goatse.

Order 4: Begin recruiting new Anon in your area.

Order 5: Begin training your noobs to assure local panzer capabilities of over 9,000. Suggested reading materials include Communist Manifesto, Mein Kemp and the Boy Scout Handbook.

Order 6: Avoid all dogs and curtains as they may prevent us from ascertaining all our goals.

Order 7. Anyone who took Computer Science 3, you know what to do.

Order 8. Please remember Anonymous will be on vacation February 10th. Don't forget to bring a scarf.

Order 9: Make sure someone marks this on the calendar.

Order 10: The buddy system is your friend because none of us are as cruel as all of us.

2. Racism

Anonymous hates all racial minorities, especially African Americans. Its members freely use the worst cultural epithets and stereotypes to denigrate African Americans and their culture and the denigrate each other using the same terms.

Anonymous targets African American online communities, using phrases reminiscent of the South during the civil war.

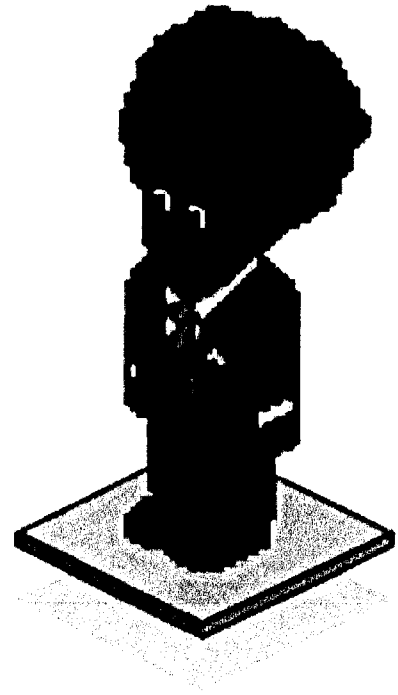

As their own postings show, its members have declared war on African Americans.

Hacking of Habbo Hotel Social Networking Site:

Habbo hotel is a social networking website owned and operated by Sulake Corporation. It is aimed at teenagers and features virtual chat rooms where users adopt online identities called avatars.

In 2006, Anonymous raided Habbo, having all of its members adopt avatars of black men in gray suits, which they called "Nigras"

Anonymous used these avatars to overwhelm the site and block access to it such as by forming their avatars into swastikas or claiming the pool was closed because of "AIDS."

Nigra

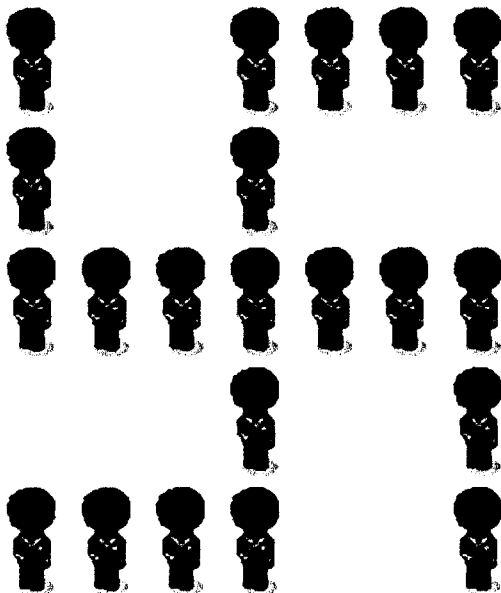

Name: Watermelonz, KFC, Mr. Postman, Koolaid, Teal, etc.

Clothing: Standard gray suit, black skin, and afro.

IRL: Cool person.

Messages: "desu desu", "POOL'S CLOSED", "AIDS", "I KILLED JONBENET RAMSEY"

Advice: If you can't beat em...join em! But no newfags.

Hacking of Urban Culture Websites:

On June 27, 2008, Anonymous launched an online attack on two popular Hip-Hop music websites, defacing them with Nazi symbols and fake headlines. This attack was precipitated by a "Call to Arms" on one of Anonymous' internet channels, 411chan.org, declaring, "Niggers called us out, we have to destroy them" supplemented with racist imagery.

MTV News.com reported on this incident as follows:

"Both companies' sites were hacked, and instead of the usual hip-hop related news articles and feature stories, readers were shocked to find fake headlines and obviously photo shopped pictures saturated with racial slurs and other offensive terms; the hackers also stole personal information about employees of SOHH.com. A group or individual going by the name "Anonymous" has claimed responsibility."

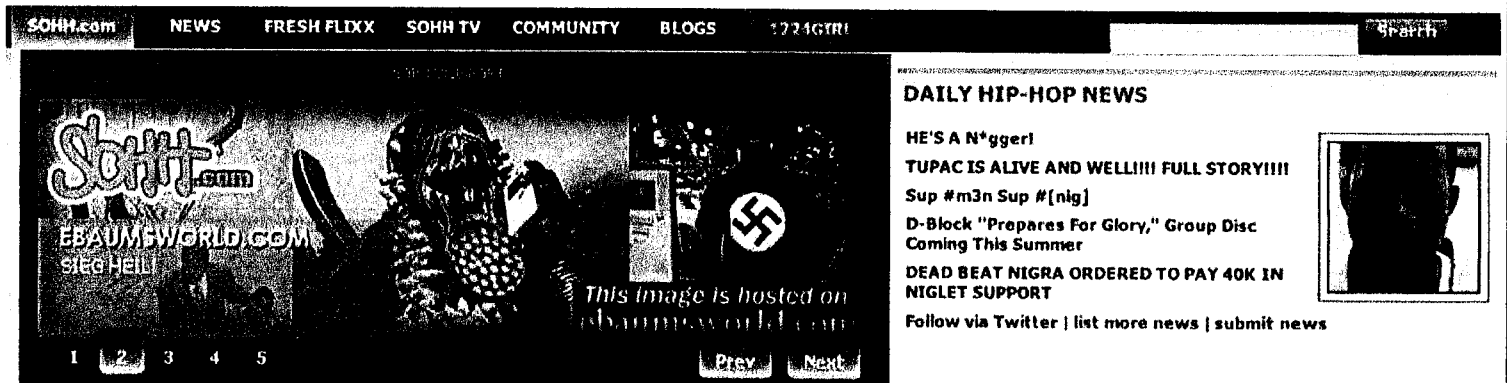

EncyclopediaDramatica.com, a primary site of Anonymous chronicling the activities of 4chan.org and 411chan.org, announced that Anonymous will continue its "fight against niggers". It stated:

"Anonymous has no regard for one's material gains or how "nannified" a racial demographic is – Anonymous only exists to destroy. That lesson has been made abundantly clear to SOHH.com. ... (Source: <http://encyclopedia-dramatica.com/SOHH>)"

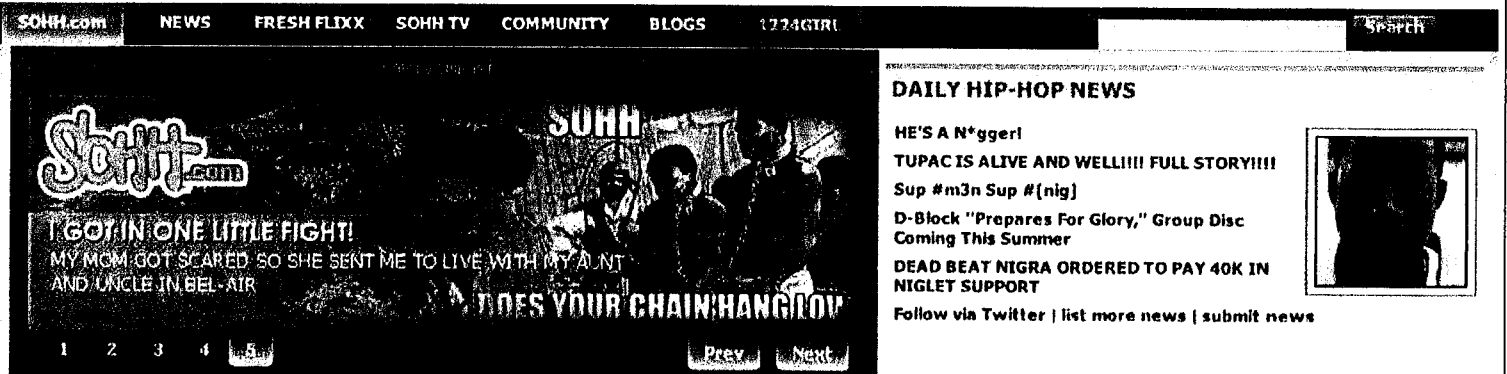

The following screen shots from SOHH.com show what the site looked like after Anonymous defacement:

Fake headlines ("JEWS DID 9/11 – Enjoy This White Wimmens, N*gger")

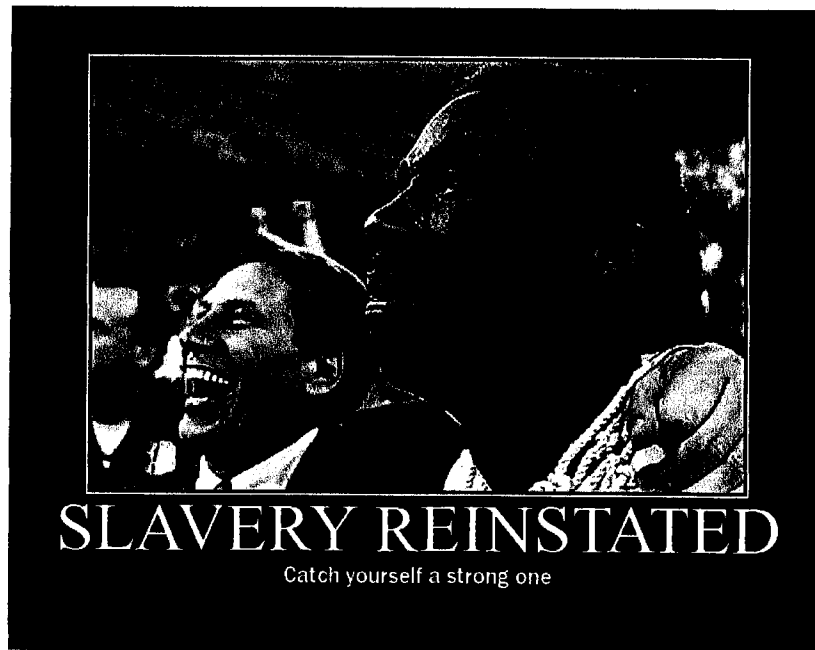

Fake headlines ("DEAD BEAT NIGRA ORDERED TO PAY 40K IN NIGLET SUPPORT") and racist pictures.

3. Religious Prejudice

The most sacred religious beliefs and the most traumatic collective religious experiences, are trivialized and debased and not only is mankind ridiculed for any belief or aspiration to something spiritual rather than physical, every spiritual leader, every man, woman, child and God are all reduced to the sum of their sexual parts – individually and collectively and obscenely – with accompanying visuals, as shown in the enclosed.

4. Anonymous Use of Violent Language and Imagery

Anonymous peppers its message boards with violent pronouncements and imagery.

In its own words, Anonymous describes its method of operation.

We are the face of chaos and the harbingers of judgment. We'll laugh in the face of tragedy. We'll mock those who are in pain. We ruin the lives of other people simply because we can. A man takes out his aggression on the cat. We laugh. Hundreds die in a plane crash. We laugh. The nation mourns over school shooting, we laugh. We're the embodiment of humanity with no remorse, no caring, no love, or no sense of morality. We only have the desire for more and more. And now quite simply you have got our attention.

Calls for Violent Action:

In one discussion on FROT CENTRAL, Anonymous uses explicit language calling for violence:

While we all would like too and many could bomb the Head Church, I have another plan:

Unite all religions in a war against Scientology. If we prepared right, we could speak at churches, synygouges and mosques and tell them the horrors of Scientology. Christians will protest, Jews will outbank them, Muslims will bomb them.

New Goal: prepare for this.

Later in the same discussion, a user boasts about and advocates criminal, violent acts:

we came across their 'church' which, around here is just a rather large house.. So we drove into their parking lot and started smashing car windows.. We go and harass them all the damn times, I've blatantly stolen shit of theirs in front of them and they asked me to put it back, instead I just left. If they're like they are around here, anywhere else. I just suggest you go and enjoy picking on them like the crippled retard at school.

I want to make her eat a rag soaked with chloroform. I want to shit on her face, and then proceed to make little dots of shit on her nipples. Then, I'll shit all around her vagoo and fuck it. when im about to cum, I'll take my dick out and bust my nuts in her left ear, then fingerbang her right. I'll take her outside and whistle for a cab, and when it comes near, the license plate will say "fresh" and there were dice in the mirror. Then, I will literally fuck the brains out of the cab driver, and place the girl in the trunk. Afterwards, I'll feed the cab driver's body into a wood chipper, whilst yelling to the cabbie "yo homes smell ya later!". I will proceed to then take the girl out, create an internal applause in her ass, and wake her up with bacon. When the fat fuck wakes up, I'll scream "YOU'RE DEAD, FUCKER!". When she screams, I'll use my fingers to puncture her neck and rip her head off. That's what I want to do.

5. Murders and Suicides

Anonymous' social degradation is available online to virtually anyone with a computer. What happens when emotionally unstable people come in contact with Anonymous' brutality can be devastating, such as Anonymous' online instructions on how to commit suicide.

Anonymous also lionizes school shooters, which has had disastrous consequences when copycats try to garner the attention of the group.

Willis was tracked down in Melbourne, Australia, but because of jurisdictional difficulties he was unable to be charged with the American crime. But police uncovered enough other evidence to charge Willis with 70 chares of criminal libel. On July 8, 2008, the day before he was scheduled to appear in court Willis was found dead in a possible suicide.

Mall massacre hoax accused dies

16:00 AEST Thu Jul 31 2008

34 days 22 hours 52 minutes ago

The threat that was posted to the 4chan website.

By Shaun Davies, ninemsn

A Melbourne man whose alleged online post about a massacre in a US mall sparked a full-scale police operation has died.

Jarrad Willis was found dead on July 8 in the Melbourne suburb of Frankston, police said. The circumstances around the death will be the subject of a coronial investigation.

Willis, 21, was due to face Frankston Magistrates Court on charges of criminal defamation, which were related to circulating an email rather than the threat posted to website 4chan.

The hoax threat, posted to 4chan's infamous /b/ imageboard, claimed a shooting rampage would occur at the Grove shopping centre in Beverly Hills on December 6, 2007.

"This is my last message, tomorrow a shooting will go down at 189 The Grove Drive, Los Angeles ... I will not stop until I am incapacitated or killed by a police officer," the threat read.

6. Cyber-Terrorism and Terrorist Threats

Anyone who doesn't share Anonymous' perverted and twisted view of the world is open to attack. Members of Anonymous have made terrorist-type threats of violence against organizations and individuals. Some have turned out to be hoaxes, for which Anonymous members have been arrested and sent to prison. Some have had more deadly consequences, as is covered elsewhere.

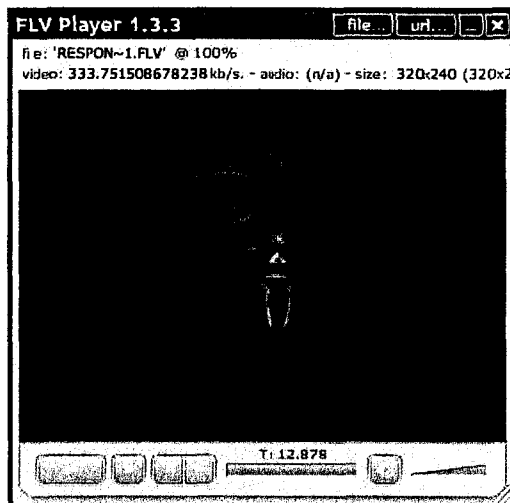

Anonymous defaces people's web pages or social networking sites. It overloads and crashes people's computers with millions of messages from robot servers scattered over the internet. These attacks are called Distributed Denial of Service Attacks.

What follows are a few examples.

Harassment of Fox News:

In July 2007, Fox News aired a special report exposing the actions of Anonymous. The report covered an attack on a MySpace user, whose account had been "hacked" into by Anonymous, and plastered with images of gay pornography. The MySpace user also claimed a virus written by Anonymous hackers was sent to him and to ninety friends on his MySpace contact list, crashing thirty-two of his friends' computers. The report also included "raids" on other Internet communities.

In response, Fox News computers were assaulted with a massive Distributed Denial of Service attack and Anonymous issued an even bolder statement of their purpose than it had previously ever articulated:

Anonymous Video -- July 2007

Dear Fox News,

It has come to our unfortunate attention that both the name and nature of anonymous has been ravaged as if it were a whore in a back alley and then placed on display for the public eye to behold.

Allow me to say quite simply, you completely missed the point of who and what we are. Unfortunately for you this is not some secret club where we gather in the clubhouse swapping old porn magazines and Daddy's Everclear. This is not some Internet gang of pale nerds who will spend everything attempting to break into your computer. This is not some group of desperate and depraved individuals who are looking to ruin everyone else's lives because their own are pathetic. We are what you, deep down inside, want to do to your wife when she doesn't make you dinner when you come home. We're what you deep down inside, want to be, when you find your 14 year old daughter sleeping with her 27 year old boyfriend. We're what you, deep down inside, wish you could be when your wife cheats on you, when your son hates you, when your daughter leaves you, when the lawyers' bills whine on you, when your boss ridicules you. We're what you could never be. We are everyone and we are no one. We are Anonymous. We are legion. We do not forgive. We do not forget.

We are the face of chaos and the harbingers of judgment. We'll laugh in the face of tragedy. We'll mock those who are in pain. We ruin the lives of other people simply because we can. the epilepsy raid was mostly win, but there was one glaring failure, in that nobody died from our attacks. i feel that if we are to continue with this trend of lulzy immorality, we should try to push the envelope a bit. So i want another brainstorming session. we need to either get someone to kill them self, or inflict grievous bodily damage upon their own body. I have thought of two ways that we could do this

1. catch a pedo, rinate his life until he an heros
2. convince people to take seemingly innocuous elements into their body, that are actually fatal. i heard a good one was putting a thin sliver of metal inside a cigarette. apparently that kills.

Attacks on Scientology Churches:

On January 17, 2008, Anonymous declared its intention to destroy the Church of Scientology with stated motives including, "their own enjoyment". Immediately following that declaration, Churches of Scientology and Scientologists began receiving death threats, bomb threats and hundreds of harassing faxes and phone calls daily.

To date, Anonymous' hate crimes against the Church of Scientology and its members include:

- 41 death threats including against the President of the Church of Scientology International.
- 56 bomb and arson threats including one to simultaneously detonate bombs in every U.S. church.
- Mailing envelopes with a powder resembling anthrax to 19 Southern California Churches.
- 103 threats of other violence.
- 40 incidents of vandalism, including attempting to set fire to the Los Angeles church.
- 3.6 million harassing emails.
- 141 million attempted attacks against Church websites, in an attempt to bring down those sites.

These attacks have resulted in multiple criminal investigations by local law enforcement and two federal investigations into Anonymous and its members for their hate crimes and terrorism.

Suspicious Envelopes Sent to Scientology

1 day ago

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Several envelopes containing white powder were sent to the Church of Scientology in what appeared to be a hoax that prompted street closings and evacuations in Southern California, the FBI said Thursday.

The envelopes were mailed to at least 19 church addresses in Los Angeles and Orange counties, and began showing up Wednesday, the FBI said.

Glendale police shut down a street for two hours and Tustin authorities evacuated 60 people from buildings as hazardous materials teams were called in.

The FBI said initial tests indicated the powder was harmless but more tests were being conducted.

The church declined to comment Thursday.

The Los Angeles-based Church of Scientology was established in 1954 by science fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard and claims 10 million members around the world, including celebrity devotees such as Tom Cruise and John Travolta.

"Hello leaders of Scientology. We are an elite Anonymous.

"On the 13th of March 2008 at approximately 12:01 p.m. GSM [sic] one 5 kilogram pack of nitroglycerin will detonate in the Churches of Scientology across the United States of America and land under the power of the Commonwealth government. These explosives will be implanted in the most logical, however hidden location in each Church. Scientologists have brought this upon themselves. For over half a century the Scientology cult has been an abomination to the word church. For over a half a century the Scientology cult has used its religion status to avoid tax exemption.

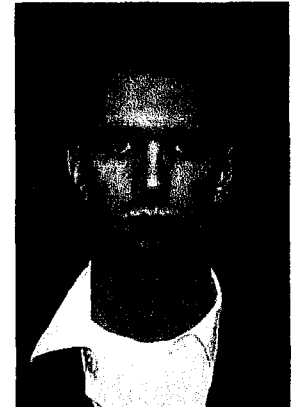

"For over half a century the Scientology cult has ridiculed those who do not follow, gave in or left those beliefs of Scientology. And for over half a century the cult has taken all mass rallies as a joke.

"This will be the world's biggest terrorist attack on a religion. Lives will be lost. Vengeance to the families of lives you have destroyed will be made.

"A separate personal attack on Heber Jentzsch will be launched on the 13th of March 2008 at an undisclosed time. His execution along with the deaths of other countless Scientologists will strike fear into the hearts of every member of this cult. Knowledge is free. We are Anonymous. We are legion. We do not forgive. We do not forget."

On Sunday, October 31st, 2007, there will be seven "Infested Terran" explosive devices detonated in seven different Aiur cities; Airami, New Aiur City, Aiurlanta, Aiurattle, Aiurson, Aiurland and Aiurveland. The death toll will approach 100,000 from the initial blasts and countless other fatalities will later occur as a result from defiler plagues.

The infested terrans themselves will be delivered via overloads. These overlords will pull up to Arbiter Tribunals hosting Stasis Upgrades in each respective city. All Tribunals to be targeted are open air Tribunals, excluding Aiurlanta's Tassadar Dome, the only enclosed Tribunal to be hit. Due to the open air, the fallout will destroy those not killed in the initial explosion. The explosions will be near simultaneous, with the cities specifically chosen in different time zones to allow for multiple attacks at the same time.

I wonder how many zerglings it would take to bring your so-called "Nexus" to it's knees. Iam told we have enough. On 9:11 A.M October 31, we shall all find out.

9/11/2007 5:41:47 PM
By: News 8 Austin Staff

A Pflugerville teenager is in custody after threatening Tuesday to bomb his school.

Pflugerville police that right after midnight, they received a call from a man in Westminster, Colorado, who said he read online that someone was planning to blow up Pflugerville High School. Police also received two other calls about the Internet postings.

The website revealed a post threatening that pipe bombs would detonate at 9:11 a.m. on Sept. 11 at Pflugerville High School. The posting threatened additional armed assaults at the school.

The teen's photograph was on the posting with him holding two apparent PVC pipe bombs. The suspected bombs had wires, component board and batteries.

Pflugerville police went to the teen's home early Tuesday morning and arrested him. He's charged with making a terroristic threat, a third-degree felony, and hoax bomb charges, a Class A Misdemeanor.

All the items found appeared to be toys, but police say they will be analyzed.

7. Anti-Gay Propaganda

Anonymous hates gays.

In its web pages on the internet Anonymous refers to homosexuality as a mental illness, classified under diseases and disorders. It states that Arabic laws punishing gay people are the only thing the Arabs do better than the west. It taunts people for being "queers," "fags," or "faggots" and, as reported by Fox News in July 2007, has used images of gay sex to harass people. Its members taunt each other with obscene and pejorative references to homosexuals.

Anonymous states on one of its websites:

"There are no laws in the civilized parts of the world that oppress gay people, meaning that's the only thing the Arab people have better then us. Due to the lack of laws protecting us, the proponents of Gay Rights claim that homosexuals deserve rights and privileges above and beyond those held by everyone else. Current laws endorse marriage among heterosexual couples because of their unique ability to expand the tax base. The notion of marriage among homosexual deviants is unnecessary and counter-productive, akin to polygamy and incest."

(Source: www.encyclopediadramatica.com/homosexuality)

Anonymous targets gays with denigrating descriptions of their sexuality, describing it as a mental illness, while showing graphic pictures of men having sex with each other and objects, and pornographic pictures of distended anuses called "goatse".

Warning: portions of the enclosed information contain material of an explicit nature.

Hey Faggots

I hate every single one of you. All of you are fat, retarded, bitches who spend every second of their day talking about stupid-ass Scientologists. You are everything bad in the world. Honestly, have any of you ever gotten any pussy? I mean, I guess it's fun making fun of people because of their religion, but you all take to a whole new level. This is even worse than jerking off to pictures of child rape and shit, I hope the FBI locks you all up for homeland security.

Just try and talk back, I dare you. Just hit me with your best shot. I'm pretty much perfect. I was captain of the debate team, and started my own .com business. What jobs do you have, other than "jack off to each others gross pale bodies"? I also get good grades, and have a very hot girlfriend (She just blew me; Shit was SO cash). You are all faggots who should just kill yourselves. Thanks for listening.

Excerpt from usage and explanation of "fag" by Anonymous:

"Shia LeBeouf - A Jew, whose name translated into Hebrew and French means 'Thank God for the Beef'. Keeps getting work because he buttfucks Michael Bay and all the other Jews in Hollywood. Soon Mel Gibson will destroy him."

"Nowadays because of fucking liberals and hippies, every straight person has to love and accept fags. If you ever punch a fag, it is a hate crime instead of just them being an annoying piece of shit. Anyone who dislikes fags is considered a homophobe because it's inconceivable that you would dislike them for a reason other than being scared of them. Gay-loving cities affectionately refer to themselves as "free-zones" <a horrible misnomer considering you are not free to say anything mean about fags, and you are forced to pretend to like them."

WE will rip your ASSHOLE out of your fucking rectum, STITCH IT on top of your pitiful dick hole, and then fuck you in the VAGINA we just made for you. SO WE MAKE YOU INTO A BITCH. Do you get it now? 8. Pornography Anonymous floods their webpages and forums with pornographic images.

Users of Anonymous' forums devoted to attacking Scientology, post pornographic pictures with their postings, such as photographs showing one man sticking his penis in the eye socket of a human skull, another doing the same with a cow skull, and other even worse images. We decided not to include them here for their disgusting nature.

Anonymous denigrates women with their imagery combining images of sex with violent and bloody carnage.

In one of their forums, a thread called "Jailbabe", Anonymous shows variety of semi-naked girls – some appearing to be very young – in obscene positions. These include images Anonymous hacked from user files on Photobucket and other image storage sites.

9. Glossary of Anonymous Terms

What follows is a glossary of terms used by Anonymous. Because many of these terms are slang invented by Anonymous or their cohorts, the definitions have been taken from their own writings. These are in italics.

4chan: Short for www.4chan.org. This is an image board that originally hosted Japanese animated images. It is one of the main haunts of Anonymous. Anonymous defines 4chan as follows: 1. You have just entered the very heart, soul, and life force of the Internet. This is a place beyond sanity, wild and untamed. There is nothing new here. "New" content on 4chan is not found; it is created from old material. Every interesting, offensive, shocking, or debate inspiring topic you've seen elsewhere has been posted here ad infinitum. We are the reason for "not safe for work". We are the anonymous army. Cross us and you will fail. Anonymous is everywhere. You depend on us every day. We bag your groceries, we fix your computers. Anonymous sees you before you see him. Sitting at desks around the world right now is a nameless, faceless, unforgiving mafia composed of the best of the best.

We are 4channers, the people devoid of any type of soul or conscience, products of cynicism and apathy, spreading those very sentiments daily. Anonymous is the hardened war veteran of the internet. He does not forgive or forget. We have seen things that defy explanations. Heard stories that would make any god-fearing, law abiding citizen empty their stomach where they stand. We have experienced them multiple times and eagerly await their return.

4chan is a place of sheer genius and utter stupidity, and there is often a thin line dividing the two. Here you will see a state of mind that exists in most human beings, but is rarely if ever shown. This is a place where taboos do not exist. 4chan cannot simply be regarded as a simple website or image board. It is so much more than code. 4chan is alive and constantly changing. This is a subculture, a self-governing sect of the world, rich in history and foundation. To become a 4chan user is to speak a different language. To leave behind any methods of conventional thinking you once knew.

There are things here that you will not understand and things you never will understand. If you cannot accept this then GTFO [get the fuck out] now, because there is no turning back.

2. 4chan: The sphincter of the Internet. Where integrity goes to die.

Anime: A style of animation that originated and is still heavily centered in Japan. The word anime is based on the original Japanese pronunciation of the American word 'animation.' The stereotype of the anime style are characters with proportionally large eyes and hair styles and colors that are very colorful and exotic. The plots of the cartoons range from very immature (kiddy stuff), through teenage level, to mature (violence, content, thick plot). The classification of hentai is given to animes of a strong sexual nature.

/b/tard: Someone who who posts on 4chan's /b/ image board.

BBS: BBS is an acronym for Bulletin Board System, which were old time computer networks. Each was privately owned, and you would dial in to connect. Once there you could share text files/wares/pics, or talk about random stuff with other people. The first one went up in 1978, and they reached their peak in 1996 with over 5000 systems in the USA alone. They were essentially killed off by the Internet. Today, there's about 75 free dial-up BBS's left in the USA.

Blog: Short for weblog, a single person's journal posted to a website.

Booty: 1. Slang for butt, or ass, specifically female posterior 2. sex, screwing.

BRB: Acronym for "be right back."

Chan: "Chan," usually used in the plural as "chans," can refer to the large array of English-language websites that were inspired by the Japanese image board 2channel. The largest and most influential of the "chans" is the popular website 4chan, although there are many other similar websites such as 7chan, 420chan, wakachan, iichan, not4chan, gurochan, fchan, sidechan, renchan, and so on.

Chanology: (Project Chanology) This is Anonymous's name for a series of attacks on the Church of Scientology by Anonymous members of 4chan.

Coppypasta: A derogatory term for forum posts which contain a direct or nearly direct copy-and-paste of posts from older forum discussions, or other material, often accompanied by an attempt to pass off the contents as new and original.

DDOS: Distributed Denial-Of-Service: Form of electronic attack involving multiple computers, which send repeated HTTP requests or pings* to a server to load it down and render it inaccessible for a period of time.

[*ping = "Packet Inter-Networking Groper." PING Can be used as a command in MS-DOS. Early computer programmers used this acronym because of it's similarities to a SONAR ping. A computer ping will send a packet of data from one computer to another to measure the time it takes for information to be sent and received. Pinging a computer can also help diagnose problems within networked computer systems.]

[HTTP = hyper text transfer protocol]

Digg: A site created by former TechTV host, Kevin Rose, that uses a very unique feature to get all its tech news content, all the news is user submitted and promoted to the front page by people clicking the digg icon next to a story. When a story gets a certain amount of diggs it is promoted to the front page and everyone who visits the site will see it.

Ebaum: A verb, Anonymous defines as stealing something and claiming it as your own. Based on the actions of Eric Bauman, owner of the website eBaumsworld.com, who, Anonymous contends, steals his content from other people and claims it as his own.

Ecchi: Softcore hentai. Often includes panty-shots, nudity, or perverted situations. Ecchi does not depict actual sex acts.

Emo: A teen subculture of people defined by their style of dress (all black, black lipstick, very long hair in front and closely cropped on the sides) and their attitudes about life (usually angst). Anonymous hates members of this subculture and encourages them to commit suicide.

Facebook: An online network originally created for students, but now open to anyone. Users make up their own profiles which include a picture, name, birth date, interests, and classes. They can then search for other students at their university or another university that has the Facebook. One can add people they know or random people as their "friends."

Fap: Masturbation. Often used to suggest that something is attractive.

FTFY: Originally means "fixed that for you." It also works as a double meaning for "fuck this fuck you." It's only used in that derivative in closed circles to confuse those that aren't in "the know" and is usually used in cases when two parties argue over something innately idiotic that has no logical outcome.

Furries: Anthropomorphic animal or cartoon characters such as Bugs Bunny, Mickey mouse, or Tony The Tiger. So-called "funny animals."

Gmod: Gmod is a modification of the source engine used to make several games.

Goatse: A disgusting picture of a man stretching his anus extremely wide. Anonymous sends an image of this to people it harasses. They also use it as a threat, as in "prepare for goatse", intended to suggest that what is depicted in the photo will be done to an individual against his or her will.

GTFO: An acronym for "get the fuck out".

Habbo: (Habbo Hotel) A social networking website owned and operated by Sulake Corporation. It is aimed at teenagers and features chat rooms.

Hentai: Hentai is animated pornography showcasing women who have better bodies than any real women (yet have weird hairstyles and hair-colors) and men with enormous penises.

IHTB: Acronym for "I have been told."

IRC: (Internet Relay Chat) is a chat protocol initially developed as a means of communication back in the days of BBS (Bulletin Board System). Clients connect to a specified server which is part of a collection of servers known as an IRC network. If a client is to send a message to a user on a different server within the same IRC network, the message is relayed between the servers and then to the other client. IRC is a text only means of communication, non-text communications or files are sent via IRC's file transfer protocol, known as DCC.

Loli: 1) short for lolicon; 2) an underage child, often depicted in sexual poses in hentai animated movies or images.

Lolicon: A term that originated on Japanese image boards meaning Lolita complex, after the novel (and two movies) in which a 12 year-old girl engages in sexual relations with an older man. The abbreviated 'complex' is generally transliterated with an ending -n rather than -m.

The term typically refers to pornographic art, anime or otherwise, of females aged between 12 and 16, and also to those people attracted to such girls. However, real child pornography is sometimes called lolicon.

Lol: It's original definition was "laughing out loud" (also written occasionally as "lots of laughs"), used as a brief acronym to denote great amusement in chat conversations. Now, it is overused to the point where nobody laughs out loud when they say it.

Lulz: Beginning as a plural variant of lol [laughing out loud], Lulz was originally an exclamation but is now often used as a noun meaning interesting or funny internet content. According to Anonymous, Lulz is the one good reason to do anything, from trolling to rape.

Meme: an idea, belief or belief system, or pattern of behavior that spreads throughout a culture either vertically by cultural inheritance (as by parents to children) or horizontally by cultural acquisition (as by peers, information media, and entertainment media).

Within 10 years of releasing many games in the series, Pokemon influenced and became a part of Japanese, American, and even worldwide pop culture. In the end, you have to prove yourself as the greatest person to live, battle, and coordinate with your team.

Newfag: A newcomer to 4chan and subject to derision from older users.

OMG: Abbreviation for the popular exclamation "Oh my God!" (generally used in conversations to exclaim surprise or disgust).

OP/ITT: Acronym for "Original poster in this forum thread."

Partyvan: A nickname for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This was a term coined through several popular image boards, particularly 4Chan, following a comic strip that depicted an Anonymous user opening his door after being told that there was a party van outside. Immediately afterwards he is attacked by several agents. The term is often used as a warning against illegal activities on the internet.

Project Chanology: A series of semi-coordinated 'attacks' on the Church of Scientology by Anonymous.

Pwn: The act of dominating an opponent. Originally a misspelling of the word own, as in to totally have a skillful advantage over someone or something pwn is to more than just own; to pwn.

The Battle Over Scientology: How the Lines Were Drawn in Riverside Co.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION:
Protestors vs. Scientology
(3/8, Part 1)

By Nathan Baca
News Channel 3

PART ONE

It's a full blown war you've likely never heard of. There is a battle between leaders of the Church of Scientology and a group of activists with both sides sworn to fight to the end.

This is war; in the shadow of a cross, and behind the gaze of a mask.

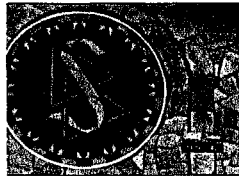

Like any war, there is violence; there is rage.

There are politicians in the middle of it, and there are partisans fighting on our streets.

Both the Church of Scientology and the group simply known as "Anonymous" both say they will not stop until the other side is destroyed.

Protestors, many wearing masks, regularly picket outside of Scientology's headquarters on Gilman Springs Road, near Hemet.

Last fall, protestors got too close to Scientology's compound. In video shot by protestors, one can hear the organ-like sound coming from giant speakers inside the Scientology headquarters trying to disrupt the picketers. Tempers flare and Scientology guards rush in, telling one "you're under arrest for trespassing!" while tackling him down.

Scientology vehicle.

The protestor told News Channel 3, "Danny Dunnigan, the security guard, grabbed me by the arm so I punched him. He let me go then he tried to grab me again. There was a tussle and he threw me against the car."

When asked if she was hurt, the protestor wearing a mask responded, "Somewhat, yeah. I twisted my back."

Riverside County Sheriff's deputies arrived minutes later. They arrest Choquette based on claims by the guards that he bit one of them and that he was guilty of trespassing beyond the legal protest zone.

A deputy explained the right of way from Gilman Springs Road as, "It's 50 feet from the center of the roadway sir, each way."

Based on this incident and several other protests at their headquarters, the Church of Scientology lobbied the Riverside County Board of Supervisors to ban all protesting close to residential zones, including their massive compound.

It is a legal battle that continues to this day. But this fight also became a spark, a symbol of resistance for the rag-tag group of protestors who unify on the internet and have the attention of law enforcement agencies for their tactics of irregular warfare.

It is the war that most have never heard of, until now.

A coalition of internet activists are sworn to destroy it, but, what exactly is Scientology? What do its members believe and why is it so controversial? We're taking a closer look at this new church.

During his lifetime, science-fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard claimed to be a nuclear physicist, explorer and war hero. Sunday Times journalist, Russell Miller exposed Hubbard's alleged facades in his book "Bare Faced Messiah."

"Ron Hubbard was a charlatan, a liar, a thief. He invented his whole life. He invented a career to substantiate himself as a guru for the Church of Scientology," Miller says.

Every American citizen / Taxpayer needs to know the truth about the crimes this organization has committed against us. There are accounts from many ex-scientologist of extreme mental & physical abuse of children as a matter of there own written policy's. And the dozens of front group's they use to sneak into our schools, and communities, local politics and media, Narconon, Applied Scholastic, Criminon, to name a few. Parent's of young children, or going off to college, I plead! with you to educate yourselves on this group and what they do with your money!!!

Greetings from Anonymous, Toronto Canada Chapter.

Here is a link to a legal affidavit from a former member of the Church of Scientology. He was a part of the church for 21 years and was stationed at Gold Base in Hemet California for most of those years.

http://www.whyaheytheydead.net/krasel/aff_at.html

He gives a detailed description of life within the church compound, including his training in High powered Firearms and Explosives, his incarcerations as part of the "Rehabilitation" program, his accounts of escape attempts made by himself and others, etc.

I advise the people behind this story go through this piece of historical accounts. It's a wealth of knowledge.

Propaganda and Payoffs? Scientology vs. 'Anonymous'

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION:
Propaganda and Payoffs?
Scientology vs.
'Anonymous' (3/10)

PART THREE

Protests in front of the Church of Scientology's headquarters near Hemet may soon be illegal.

Sheriff's deputies keep reminding protestors with the group known as "Anonymous" to stay within 50 feet from the center of the road going through the Scientology compound.

Video shown in our first segment shows just how forceful Scientology guards are willing to confront those who get a dozen feet past the line.

Last fall, Riverside County Supervisor Jeff Stone proposed a law that would ban protesting near residential zones. That includes the Scientology headquarters. Members of anonymous came to defend themselves.

Supervisor Taviglione asked one protestor at a public meeting, "What's the difference between your organization and the Klu Klux Klan?"

Protestor Francois Choquette responded, "It is not an organization."

Taviglione pressed, "Whatever you want to call it. The group that you are affiliated with."

Choquette replied, "It is a collection of people that protest anonymously."

Taviglione commented, "You know you're on TV here."

Choquette answered, "Absolutely. And I'm glad of it."

"Good. It's a good thing you didn't wear your cape and your mask," commented Taviglione

Supervisor Stone presented a booklet to his fellow supervisors. It alleges that Anonymous is a domestic terrorist group. The booklet claims Anonymous's web postings prove they hate Blacks, they hate Jews and they hate Gays.

Stone told his fellow supervisors while presenting pages of this booklet, "Here, they tell young people how to commit suicide. They show you exactly where to cut your wrists. I mean, is this not the most sickening material you've ever seen? Or here, let's promote suicide amidst our youth."

There is one thing the booklet does not have. It has no byline, no group publicly stating who wrote and produced this 50 page booklet. It is anonymous evidence to convict a group known as "Anonymous."

Late Tuesday, staff members from Supervisor Stone's office said they weren't certain where the booklet came from or who supplied it to them.

Campaign contribution forms show the Firm of Sam Alhadeff, the attorney who pressed the Supervisors to ban protesting near Scientology headquarters donated $5,400 to Jeff Stone's campaign.

The head of the Scientology compound's public relations department, Catherine Fraser, donated an additional $600.

News Channel 3 was invited by the Church of Scientology to tour the inside of their headquarters in December. After months of their postponements, we decided to give ourselves a tour.

Our cameras spotted long stretches of motion detector fencing. Many of the fence posts have spikes. The spikes face inward, not outward like most security fences.

We also spotted a hilltop observation post with camouflage netting and telescopes with a commanding view of the area. When they spotted our live truck mast camera looking at them, we were interrupted in the middle of an interview with protestors outside the headquarters gate.

As we asked attorney Graham Berry, "Tell me about the frustrating process if all these ordinances..."

At that point, a Scientology public relations employee tapped us on the shoulder and said, "Ok. I don't need the cameras on. This person has been trying to get a hold of you. His name is Mr. Tommy Davis. He is out media informational person. If you can please call him, that would be appreciated."

We asked, "Do you have anything to say to the folks out here?"

The Scientology employee responded while walking back to the gate, "No. I don't."

One phone call later and we had our interview set with one of the Church of Scientology's leaders. News Channel 3 was heading to Hollywood.

Our one-on-one interview with Tommy Davis comes next. We ask why violent confrontations are happening in front of his headquarters and why camouflaged observation posts are needed. We confront Davis with the confidential works of L. Ron Hubbard and ask why there are threats of pneumonia for those who read it.

During his lifetime, science-fiction writer L. Ron Hubbard claimed to be a nuclear physicist, explorer and war hero. Sunday Times journalist, Russell Miller exposed Hubbard's alleged facades in his book "Bare Faced Messiah."

"Ron Hubbard was a charlatan, a liar, a thief. He invented his whole life. He invented a career to substantiate himself as a guru for the Church of Scientology," Miller says.

Scientology is very much like the Nazis. They use front groups to hide their true intentions because they know they are promoting hatred. They attempt to instill fear into critics with stalking, PIs, and death threats. They encourage hate and spread lies against anyone who opposes them on the internet and in front of the critics' homes.

No one should have to endure this type of attacks.

They only spread lies and hatred, and cover it up as 'religion'.

Anonymous is a group of people who think calling a religion a cult or hacking someone's mspace is going to change the world. Your so called Legion is nothing and will never be something. Take the masks off, grow up and get a life, you religious bigots.
